The San Francisco Call says: An esteemed Democratic contemporary wants to know where is Blaine, of Maine, There is an apprehension in Democracie circles that Mr. Blains does not propose to fulfill Democratic predictions that he would wreck Mr. Harrison's Administration if he an Eastern Democratic contemporary once amused its readers with, of a log cabin so full of Blaine that Harrison was feirly crowded out, has not yet been realized. In fact Mr. Blame has attended to the duties of his office and let Mr. Harrison at lend to the duties of his office. Still Mr. Blaine has made his policy felt. Unless the reports of the conditions of the Samoan treaty are wide of the mark the American position has been maintained against the greatest military power of Enrope. In the Behring Sea the American revenue cutter is taking English poschers in as well as offending vessels of other nationalities. Under Mr. Bayard it was not thought entirely safe to capture scalers flying the British flag. Under Blaine the British are treated as Americans or other violaters of the law are treated. On the whole Blaine meetns to be doing pretty well up to date. When the Congress of American Nations meets in Washington he will be heard not nourished the plan eight years for nothing. Equalization. The assessed value of real estate is $2,178,411 and of personal property $1,208,329. This shows an increasof $26,453 in the value of real estate and a falling off of $211,794 in the value of personal property since last year. The cause of the decline in personal property is painfully apparent to everybody. The apprecedented drought has caused large droves of cattle to te driven or shipped out of the county and depreciated the value of those that remain. In the great agricultural valley of Paradise, which ordinarily produces hundreds of tons of wheat and thousands of tons of bay and raised this season. The same distressing state of affairs, so far as grain is concerned, exists at Big Meadows where grain sown last January remains in the ground unsprouted because of the lack of moisture. Fortunattry there was a large area of land

SENATOR STANFORD.

The San Francisco Post says: The Call and Alts of this morning both peak of the enthusiastic reception Sensior Stanford received at San Jose yesterday. As parlor after parlor of the Native Sons passed his carriage, the young men, the hope and glory of the State, raised their hate and cheered him; not only they, but crowds on the sidewalks loudly applauded him as he passed by in the great procession. It shows how proud the people of Cal-ifornia are of their illustrious Senator Stanford's only ambition in Washington has been to serve the people. Almost the first vote be cast in the Senate was in favor of one of the Indian tribes, and against a railroad in which he is a large stockholder. The St. Louis and San Francisco roads got involved in a controversy with an Indian reservation over certain lands. Stanford voted to return the lands to the Red men caying that they needed the property more than the railroad did. And it has been so with other legislation. His record as a public man has always been unselfish and on the side of the unfortunate. His large know that his one thought is to serve the people in all faithfullness. Even when in poor health he attended every committee meeting and never missed a session of the Senate. His rare judgment and great experience in affairs makes his advice and counsel sought by the leading Senators on both sides of the chamber. He is the most popular man in the Senate. The first question strangers from all parts of the country who visit the Senate galleries ask is, "Which is Senator Stanford?" Californians visiting Washington are proud to point out our senior Senator. There is point out our senior Senator. There is not a man, woman or child in the United States who has not heard of him and his achievements in railroad building and in future he hopes to pass a bill that will save from destruction the sweet wine industry of this State by relieving it of the burden some tax on grape brandy. Worth more than all her gold mines is such a Senator to California. The ovation he received yesterday at San José emphasizes the fact that his services are being appreciated. Strong Democrats in many parts of the State have recently asserted that there was no opposition in their counties to Senator Stanford. Why should he not be unanmously re-elected? There are precedents Mohave, "We are thinking very strongly for it. Senator Edmunds received all the votes in the Vermont Legislature at his south in order to tap the Pioche mining last re-election. And Judge Lamar, the district," said he, "but we will probably last time he ran for the Senate in Mississippi, received all the Republican votes as well as the unanimous support of his own party. Meither Edmands nor Lamar were more useful to their respective States time to formulate plans for a re-election. His mind and heart are absorbed in planning and building a great university pute that I make the lowest prices. for the education of the youth of this State. He is so liberal in his politics that he has voted with the Democrats on several occasions. He serves Republicans and Democrats alike, and knows no party in

A LLEDUCATED VETERINARIES ADVOCATE
A Veterinary Dentistry, well knowing that no other method has yet been discovered that produces the same astisfactory result. I cut the front teeth of old horses as that the back teeth come together. Very few horses, young or old, but have more or less sharp edges or rough projectors upon their molars. These sharp points lacerate the mouth thereby causing forture to the horse, and he tries in various ways to rid himself of the trouble. Some tass the head, droll or slobber; others start suddonly or stop short, and some shy, drive sideweys or hold their head in an unnaural manner.

Blindness in one or both eyes, a rough cost of hair, a suffering horse and disagreeable driver is caused by a defective mouth. I carefully remove all irregularities and place the mouth in a level, natural condition.

Veterinary dentistry is an act of humanity. It not only relieves suffering but produces a fine, pleasant driver, and gives you a healthy horse whose life is prolonged at least five years.

I have had eight years, experience in this business and am qualified to give thorough satisfaction.
